Melbourne Gardens Master Plan 2019-2039

Neighbours Briefing

Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria has developed a draft Master Plan for Melbourne Gardens.

The new Master Plan will set the direction of the Gardens' physical development for the next 20 years; resolving current issues, protecting what is important and allowing for exciting new projects to be realised.

As a neighbour of Melbourne Gardens we wish to invite you to a briefing on the Master Plan by Chris Cole, Executive Director Melbourne Gardens and Andrew Laidlaw, Landscape Architect before the draft is open to public feedback during March

Details of our Neighbours Briefing are:

Date: Thursday 21 February

Time: 6.00pm –7.30pm

Location: Domain House, Dallas Brooks Drive, Melbourne

Listening Posts

If you are unable to attend the Neighbours Master Plan Briefing, Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria is holding two Master Plan listening post drop-in sessions during March.

You can drop by our Visitor Centre at Melbourne Gardens to view our priority Master Plan projects. Chris Cole, Executive Director Melbourne Gardens and Andrew Laidlaw, Landscape Architect will be on-hand to discuss the Master Plan and answer questions.

Details of our Master Plan Listening Post session are:

Dates: Sat 16 March and Sat 23 March

Time: 9.30am –12.30pm, drop in at anytime

Location: Visitor Centre, Melbourne Gardens
