City of Melbourne Updates /7th May: some updates and information you may find useful.

Influenza vaccinations now available at Melbourne Town Hall. Please email at immunisation@melbourne.vic.gov.au by 5pm the night before the session you wish to attend. This is so that CoM can allocate you a session time via email to comply with social distancing requirements. To find out about session times, any associated costs and what to bring on the day go to our Getting immunised in the City of Melbourne page.

Cohealth has established a new COVID-19 testing facility at Drill Hall, 53 Victoria Street near the Queen Victoria Market operating until Friday 8 May. While walk-ins are welcome, appointments are preferred. Call 9448 5536. Testing is recommended for anyone who has mild symptoms, but people without symptoms will also be accepted.

City of Melbourne, in partnership with Women’s Health West, is offering women experiencing or at risk of family violence face-to-face conversation and support at Melbourne Town Hall 9.30am-11.30am and 1.00pm-3.00pm Wednesdays through May. To book an appointment or to find out more contact 9340 1422 / 9689 9588 or supportandcounselling@melbourne.vic.gov.au. Drop-ins are also welcome. City of Melbourne’s family violence support services are listed on our website here: <https://www.melbourne.vic.gov.au/community/health-support-services/for-my-family/Pages/family-violence-support.aspx>

City of Melbourne Libraries: eBook Valet service. While our physical library books are out of reach, we are offering an eBook Valet service to keep you stocked with plenty to read. If you would like eBook and eAudio recommendations that you can dive into straight away, answer a few simple questions by clicking this link and we will create a tailored reading list just for you. We have also put together handy guides to get you started with all of our e-platforms. There’s never been a better time to delve into our expansive e-collections.

Enjoy more than 18 hours of music by Victorian artists on our Spotify playlist curated by the Melbourne Music Week team. From lounge room workout bangers to relaxing tracks that will help you slow down, there’s something to suit every aspect of your quarantine. Follow Melbourne Music Week on Spotify and let the team know if there are any themes you’d like explored in their next playlist.

National Volunteer Week (NVW) is the annual celebration to acknowledge the generous contribution of our nation’s volunteers and is happening across the country between 18 – 25 May 2020. This year’s theme is “Changing Communities. Changing Lives”. To find out more about volunteering go to www.volunteeringaustralia.org/.

PLEASE EMAIL TO secretary@msyrg.com.au ANY UPDATES/ADDITIONS ABOUT OUR LOCAL VILLAGE SHOPS. We can then add it to Bulletin Covid19 Updates that we plan to keep sending out to members

Email secretary@msyrg.com.au if you would like earlier COVID19 BULLETINS emailed to you again
