The 2023 Police Community Sentiment Survey

The annual survey provides an opportunity for Victorians to share with police their safety concerns, how they would like to interact with police and where police can focus efforts to prevent and deter crime.

Everyone who lives, studies, works, or socializes in Victoria is encouraged to complete the survey. Responses are anonymous, and the survey does not ask participants for their name or contact details. The Survey will run for four weeks from Friday 31 March to midnight Sunday 30 April 2023.
